

The "Telephone Consumer Protection Act" name says it all. Our right to a form of communication should not have attached to it intruders, via the phone, into our home. We are presently invaded by junk mail, a status the telemarketers were on their way to reaching. We are so happy NJ has taken a strong stand to protect OUR rights. And, NEVER should these telecommunicators be allowed to call cell phones!